Strive to enter through
the narrow gate,
for many, I tell you,
will attempt to enter
but will not be strong enough.

Luke 13:24

TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

DISCIPLINE

It is no accident that the words “disciple” and “discipline” are nearly identical. Their relationship in Christian faith and life, however, has fallen somewhat out of favor in the past generation, as certain prescribed Church rules and regulations have been reduced and relaxed. These rules were often referred to as “disciplines.” We are mistaken, however, to think that it no longer takes discipline to follow Christ. The Letter to the Hebrews assures us of that today. Our discipline is more like that of an athlete pursuing a victory or a personal best, or a musician striving for a concert career or to master a new piece of music. This discipline comes from desire, not from regulations. It was the desire to do the will of God that led Jesus on the path to his cross. It is that same desire he encourages in us today: to strive to enter through the narrow gate, to find ourselves in the kingdom with a surprising assortment of people who are there not because of mere observation of rules, but out of a genuine desire to recline at the table of the heavenly banquet. -Copyright © J. NUESTRO LLAMADO CATOLICO
por nuestro pueblo
nuestros ministerios
nuestro futuro

Jubilee Year of Mercy

This Jubilee Year of Mercy and Pope Francis' ministry have renewed our understanding that the Church's heart is open wide to all, and the heart of the gospel is God's mercy. Flooded with God's mercy, our hearts should overflow as channels bringing to wounded and weary hearts Jesus' healing mercy. For Jesus warns, our own salvation is not guaranteed by the Liturgy of the Word ("you taught in our streets") nor by the Eucharist ("we ate and drank in your company") (Luke 13:26). People far from that banquet, "from the east and the west and from the north and the south . . . will recline at table in the kingdom of God" (13:29). Rather, showing mercy is key to obtaining mercy ourselves (Matthew 5:7). So we should never dare ask what "someone" asked Jesus, "Lord, will only a few people be saved?" (Luke 13:23). The crucial question is "Will I be saved?" And Jesus' answer is another question: "Have you shown mercy to everyone, freely, gladly, no limits, no conditions, no exceptions?" --Peter Scagnelli, Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

DISCIPLINA

No es accidente que las palabras "discípulo" y "disciplina" sean casi idénticas. Su relación en la fe y la vida cristiana, sin embargo, ha caído en desuso en la generación pasada debido a que ciertas reglas y regulaciones prescritas en la fe cristiana se han reducido o relajado. Estas reglas eran llamadas "disciplinas". Nos equivocamos, sin embargo, si pensamos que ya no se necesita disciplina para seguir a Cristo. La Carta a los Hebreos nos lo asegura hoy. Nuestra disciplina es como la de un atleta que persigue victoria o quiere ser mejor, o como la de un músico que lucha por una carrera como concertista o perfeccionar una nueva obra musical. Esta disciplina esta basada en el deseo, no en las reglas. Fue el deseo de hacer la voluntad de Dios lo que motivó a Jesús al camino del calvario. Este es el mismo deseo que El inspira en nosotros hoy: luchar por entrar por la puerta angosta, para encontrarnos en el Reino con muchas personas que están allí no solamente por observar las reglas, sino por un sincero deseo de reclinarse a la mesa del banquete celestial. -Copyright © J. Año Jubilar de la Misericordia

Este Año Jubilar de la Misericordia y el ministerio del Papa Francisco vienen renovando nuestro entendimiento de que el corazón de la Iglesia está abierto para todas las personas y, el corazón del Evangelio es la misericordia de Dios. Inundados con la misericordia de Dios, nuestros corazones deben desbordarse como arroyos llevando a las personas cansadas y heridas la misericordia consoladora de Jesús. Ya que Jesús señala que nuestra salvación no está garantizada por la Liturgia de la Palabra ("tú has enseñado en nuestras plazas") ni por la Eucaristía ("Hemos comido y bebido contigo") (Lucas 13:26). Habrá personas lejos de ese banquete "del oriente y del poniente, del norte y del sur . . . participarán en el banquete del Reino de Dios" (13:29). Por el contrario, mostrar misericordia es la clave para obtener misericordia nosotros mismos (Mateo 5:7). Para que nunca debamos atrevernos a preguntar lo que "alguien" le preguntó a Jesús: "Señor, ¿es verdad que son pocos los que se salvan?" (Lucas 13:23). La pregunta debiera ser: "¿Yo me salvaré?" Y la respuesta de Jesús sería otra pregunta: "¿Has sido misericordioso con tu prójimo, de manera libre, con alegría, sin límites, sin condiciones, sin excepciones?"
